

Lohakit Metal Public Company Limited
Organized the “LHK FOR CSR” Candle Procession and Buddhist Robe
Offering for the Year 2025.

On Thursday, July 10, 2025, the Human Resources Department of Lohakit Metal Public Company Limited organized the “LHK FOR CSR” activity, featuring a candle procession and Buddhist robe offering at Chang Rueang Phawanaram Temple in Nonthaburi Province. The event aimed to preserve the cherished tradition of the Buddhist Lent Festival and to promote social responsibility awareness (CSR).

The event featured a candle procession for Buddhist Lent and the distribution of sweet drinks to villagers and attendees who came to make merit at the temple. The activities fostered an atmosphere of happiness, unity, and collaboration between the company and the surrounding community.

The company would like to sincerely thank all employees who united as representatives from each department to participate in this activity. We also extend our blessings and gratitude to all employees and devotees who joined in preserving and honoring the beautiful Thai culture for generations to come.
